

Certificate III in Commercial Cookery

Descriptor

This qualification reflects the role of commercial cooks who use a wide range of cookery skills. They use discretion and judgement and have a sound knowledge of kitchen operations. Individuals work with some degree of independence and under limited supervision and may provide operational advice and support to team members.

Possible Job Titles

- Cook

Mode of delivery

This course is delivered in mixed-mode delivery of 15 hours face-to-face and 5 hours distance education/online classes per week. Practical classes may require up to 20 hours face-to-face attendance per week.

A work component of 500 hours is mandatory and will be at a suitable hospitality venue. The College arranges work placements for its students and these may be paid or unpaid placements.

This qualification is also suitable for a Traineeship/Apprenticeship pathway for Australian citizens or permanent residents.

Trainees/Apprentices will do their training in a combination of on-the-job and on-line/distance education and be assessed on-the-job.

Assessment

Assessment for this qualification is by written reports, case studies, projects, role plays, written assessments and third party reports as well as portfolios of evidence and workplace reports. Practical assessments will be conducted in a fully-equipped, operational, commercial kitchen in our on-site training restaurant or workplace facilities that meet industry standards.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is available to all students applying for this qualification. RPL is the recognition of your current skills and knowledge acquired through prior learning from other training, work or life experience.
